

MORBID WOMEN ARE AT TRIAL

Burdick Inquest Is Resumed Early This Morning Before a Large Crowd.

COURT IS FILLED

Doors Are Closed After the Seats Are All Taken and Others Excluded

(Special By Scripps-Mellae.)
Buffalo, March 26.—There was a big jam about the court room this morning when the Burdick inquest was begun. Most of the crowd were women. When the seats were filled the doors were closed and no more were allowed in the room.

Minister Talks
Rev. Powers, pastor of the church Burdick attended, told of a conversation he had with Burdick and stated he knew of the divorce proceedings as told him by Mr. Burdick and of the threats made by Mrs. Burdick and Pennell of suicide if he kept up the actions.

Mrs. Hull Implicated
He also told of a conversation in which Mrs. Hull was said to have said that while her daughter had done wrong and she knew it the blame was not all on her side.

Threatened Publicity
He also said that Burdick told him if Pennell insisted on fighting the divorce he would make all Pennell's letters public and brought up for ridicule.

HAZERS CAUSED BOY'S TROUBLES

Youth Who Acted Queerly Monday Night Had Been Badly Treated.

It is stated that the young man who visited George Sykes' home on Milwaukee avenue Monday night and later entered P. H. Korst's kitchen and made himself at home, was a member of Valentines' School of Telegraphy and was suffering from an attack of mental derangement brought on by a hazing he received at the hands of his fellow students.

The young man's name is Earl Cleves, and his home is at Slouss City, Ia. He is about nineteen years of age and had only been in the school a short time. He boarded with Orvette D. Brace at 60 North Jackson street and in the city and showed no signs of being out of his mind until after the hazing affair occurred.

Just what happened to Cleves cannot be ascertained, but it is understood that shortly after he entered the school, a number of the boys got him away from his boarding house and put him through a full course of hazing and ended up by relieving him of what spare cash he had. It is said he brooded over the affair until his mind gave way and he did all sorts of curious things. He was evidently laboring under one of these mental attacks when he was at the Sykes and Korst homes on Monday night.

His parents were notified about the way he was acting and Tuesday his mother arrived in this city from Slouss City and he returned home with her. Valentine Bros., seeing the condition the young man was in and they returned to his mother the amount paid them for tuition. The young man never recovered the money taken from him during the hazing escapade, and although every effort has been made to ascertain who the guilty parties are, the affair was kept so quiet that there is little clew to the perpetrators.

TRINIDAD RIOTS WERE REPORTED

Colonial Secretary Chamberlain Received a Report of Disturbances at Port of Spain.

(Special By Scripps-Mellae.)
London, March 26.—Colonial Secretary Chamberlain received a cablegram today from the chamber of commerce of Port of Spain, Trinidad where the government buildings were burned by a mob Monday night because of unpopular legislation, asking that Gov. Sir C. A. Malony and the principle officials of the island be recalled.

The chamber of commerce says public confidence has been entirely lost in these officials, and it will be necessary to recall them so as to restore order and prevent bloodshed, pending the appointment of a royal commission of inquiry which is urgently needed.

In the house of commons today Colonial Secretary Chamberlain read the dispatch from the governor of Trinidad, confirming the reports of the rioting, stating that nine persons had been killed and forty wounded. The public building was destroyed with all the records except those of the register general's office. Mr. Chamberlain promised that an immediate inquiry would be made into the matter.

City Treasurer's Report: The city treasurer's report will be found on page seven of this issue.

WOMAN KILLED MANY BABIES

Widow of a Russian Officer "Made Angels" of Them for Consideration.

(Special By Scripps-Mellae.)
Berlin, March 26.—The widow of Lieut. Casimir Stanislaus Gzowski was arrested at Warsaw today charged with infanticide. It is charged that she has made a business of receiving unwelcome babies which she dispatched when most convenient, charging from $25 to $500 in each case, according to the wealth and social position of the mothers who had recourse to her services. The police say that she has murdered 500 babies within the last two or three years for which she received no less than $50,000. This crime is not an unusual one in Russia and is called "angel making."

STATE NOTES

Graduating exercises will be held at Racine college, June 11. There will be eleven graduates.

The Wisconsin river remains dangerously high at Portage, although it lowered two inches last night.

The opening meetings of the third annual convention of the Women's Federated clubs, were large attended.

Capt. George Breckenfold of the Racine life saving station has received notice to open his station April 1.

High water has washed out many bridges in the country district in Dunn county, entailing a heavy loss to the taxpayers.

The Dunn county teachers training school will graduate a class of twenty-three at the close of the spring term this week.

The Battle Creek sanitarium, destroyed by fire some months ago, is about to establish a branch in Racine. It will be located on State street and be in charge of a prominent Adventist.

REVEALS CONSPIRACY TO KILL ROOSEVELT

Aged Negro Tells Congressman Tawney of Plot to Slay President and Capture His Cabinet.

Winona, Minn., March 26.—An aged negro orator, J. C. Fremont of Watertown, S. D., who at the close of the civil war was president of the society that sent many negroes back to Africa, called on Congressman Tawney and asked for a private interview. He said he had a communication which he desired the congressman to convey to the president. This was to the effect that Fremont had obtained information that a plan had been made to attempt the life of Roosevelt on his Western trip, but that this had been abandoned and instead the plot was being planned at some favorable point in Montana or Colorado to capture Secretary of Treasury Shaw, Secretary of War Root and Attorney General Knox and carry them to the mountains to be held for suitable ransom. Fremont refused to divulge the source of his information, but insisted it was correct. Congressman Tawney places little credence in the tale, but has written to Secretary Shaw, telling him the negro's story.

Official Notice
Editor Gazette: The writer did not intend speaking further regarding the coming election but in the Gazette of last night's issue the editor said he has nothing to offer in my favor, and criticizes my action in asking the republican nomination for mayor. I will again say if the republicans, at their convention, feel like endorsing me for the office of mayor, I stand ready to accept. This is my right as a citizen and taxpayer if I feel like asking it. The Gazette notwithstanding.

J. HOROUGHGOOD.
N. B.—So Mote It Be.

Drunks in Court: Chief Hogan had two drunks before the municipal court this morning as the result of last night's pick-ups. John Sheridan plead guilty and was given a fine of $4 and costs, in all $5.20 or ten days in jail. He went to jail. Ira P. Dorn plead guilty to the same charge and was given two days in jail and a fine of $3 and costs in all $4.20 or eight additional days. He went down.

STEEL TRUST'S NEW MOVEMENT

Three Companies Have Been Added Since the Formation of the Combination.

STREET CAR MEN GO ON A STRIKE

Car Line in Seattle Tied Up, and Eight Hundred Men Walk Out.

SHOW NO VIOLENCE

Union Pickets Patrol Streets To Keep Sympathizers from Doing Damage to Property.

(Special By Scripps-Mellae.)
Seattle, March 26.—The entire city is walking today to and from business owing to the strike of eight hundred street car conductors and motormen of the city transit company early this morning.

No Violence
There is no sign of disorder or violence in any part of the city and the union men of the street car companies are patrolling the streets to avoid any conflicts with the authorities from sympathizers.

Ask Injunction
It is probable that the street car company will ask for an injunction this afternoon restraining the strikers from striking from the federal court. This will probably do the desired thing asked for by the strikers—an arbitration board.

PROMOTE BISHOPS TO NEW PLACES

Monsignors Glennon and Moeller Are To Have New Stations Assigned.

Rome, March 26.—It is considered most probable that the Right Rev. John J. Glennon, coadjutor bishop of Kansas City, will be appointed coadjutor archbishop of St. Louis, and that the Right Rev. Henry Moeller, bishop of Columbus, will be appointed coadjutor of Cincinnati. The day for the meeting of the congregation of Propaganda, at which these appointments will be made, has not been decided upon, but it is likely to be April 6. If Bishop Glennon and Moeller are appointed their vacant positions will not be filled for at least two months.

TOBACCO TALK OF GOOD CROPS

THE 1902 PRODUCT IS CONSIDERED OF FINE QUALITY.

LARGE DEALS ARE REPORTED

Outlook Throughout Rock County Shows That Prices Are Good.

The leaf tobacco market is rather quiet at present and very little business is being transacted outside the sorting rooms, of the numerous warehouses. Some of the largest packers have closed down their sorting rooms and the smaller packers are now able to get all the help they need and will complete their work in good season. The condition of the roads has been such for the last two weeks that very little riding has been done by the buyers and it has also retarded the delivery of crops already purchased. In some cases this has been a good thing, as it has given the warehousemen a chance to get the goods already in hand sorted and out of the way.

Made a Large Sale
Some new goods are being sold, but what trading there is, is mostly in low grades for export trade. The first sale of this year's packing of any consequence, was made at Westby, Wis., last week, when 1700 cases of 1902, packed by Shannon & Eckhart, were sold to L. Bamberg & Co., of Philadelphia. A transaction involving something like $60,000, is an indication that this firm has confidence in the 1902 crop and that the packings of this crop will meet with ready sale in the east. The prices paid for the packing were not made public, but it is generally known that they were quite satisfactory to the sellers. It is a characteristic of this firm to make large deals, but as the crop contained some of the choicest of Vernon county leaf they did not make a mistake in securing it.

Packings in Good Shape
The report started in the east that "black rot" had shown in the 1902 crop is laughed at by the dealers in this part of the country. They say that while the leaf had considerable moisture in it there is no reason why it should not go through the sweat all right if properly handled. The packers had considerable experience with this trouble a few years ago and are now on the look-out for it.

New York Market
Selling goes on freely; there is a demand for every and any type of cigar leaf, but transactions are limited in quantity, and they are partially limited so by the reason of the lack of supply, and if prices do not realize the profits of former years then it is chiefly because the grower participates to a much larger extent in the profits than he was accustomed to in the former years. There is no surplus of stock on hand which ought to reassure the market of a steady and continuous business. In the aggregate the weekly sales are larger on an average than in former years, as the consumption has increased so phenomenally, and what is lost in the size of profits ought to be made up by the extension of business. The report of the result of the first inspection of the season ought to cause a brisker trading of Sumatra stock on hand. Neither the quality of leaf offered or the price paid for it would seem to be an inducement for any one in need of wrapper leaf to hold off for an investment in a new importation. The Sumatra leaf was in consequence a little livelier than for the past few weeks, and some good sales, aggregating 300 bales, were effected.

Connecticut Valley
There is not very much doing in the tobacco buying line in this section, as a very large proportion of the procurable crop has been disposed of. Most of what tobacco remains unsold will be absorbed by the growers and probably held until the price reaches what they regard as an adequate figure. The packers regard this situation with serenity and predict that when these farmers finally market their leaf they will probably admit that the warehouse men are entitled to all the profit they get from their transactions when the risk is considered. And they further say that the general quality of the 1902 crop is such that the farmers who believe the packers make exorbitant profits will probably have a pretty thorough lesson in the part of the business which they think is such a mint.

New York State
The tobacco market here is decidedly different from last year, and it is not yet settled whether the conditions are better or worse. A year ago the American Cigar company was a very heavy purchaser and farmers, in expectation of the same thing this year, have been holding their crops for a higher figure than independent buyers could afford to pay. But, as far as is known, the American is not buying to any great extent, and there is more or less disappointment in consequence. But the absence of the A. C. C. has brought back many of the independent buyers, who were scared off last year, and many are inclined to believe that this denotes a much healthier condition of affairs. Considerable tobacco has changed hands during the week, but each lot has evidently been bought on its own merits, as the prices on reported sales vary all the way from two to eight cents in the bundle. It will be remembered that last year the American absorbed whole crops at a uniform price. This year each lot is bought separately. The warehouses are quite busy, farmers being in a hurry to deliver their tobacco before the commencement of their spring work, now close at hand.

Pennsylvania
The past week was one of unusual dullness in the leaf trade, so far as old goods were concerned, the sales not exceeding 400 boxes. The only reason alleged is the small amount of old goods on hand, that being the only kind at present demanded by manufacturers.

The time for preparing for planting the coming tobacco crop is at hand. From all that is said by farmers, I am led to infer that if the spring is favorable an increased acreage will be set out. This will be due to two causes; first, the rapidity and closeness with which the 1902 crop was disposed of, and second, the good price received for it. Eight and nine cents were the ruling price for the first grade, and at that price seedleaf nets the grower a big profit. But it may be well to remember that the conditions last year were unusual. First of all, the big tobacco trust entered the field, fixed the price at a high figure and began buying in almost every section of the country. Hundreds of crops were bought while still standing in the fields, and thousands while the tobacco was curing in the barns and before any one could tell how the goods would turn out. Then another large cigar manufacturer company entered the field and did the same thing. This set the pace. Unwillingly the local packers, were forced to do the same thing, or thought they were, and they also began buying, lest they should get left, and were compelled, as they now confess, to pay a cent or two more than they believe the tobacco was worth.

Ohio
The erection of a tobacco warehouse at Waynesville is agitated by the people of that city. Tobacco-raising is the chief industry of the farmers in that section, and the need of a tobacco warehouse at some central point is evident. Last week 245,000 pounds of tobacco were shipped from Waynesville and Lytle, and the growers took in between $35,000 and $40,000. Not half of the crop there has been sold, it is said, and when all is disposed of these figures will doubtless be doubled.

Havana, Cuba
Our market has again been fairly active and prices are beginning to show a hardening tendency, particularly for all clean, heavily bodied second capadras of Remedios, as well as for the first sizes of this class of tobacco, old and new crop. People who are apt to look ahead and are not influenced in making their deals by any momentary market situation in claim that any investment made in this staple article at the present low ruling price is bound to result very advantageously, as the coming 1903 crop of Remedios is sure to be a very deficient one as regards quality, and that for this reason all heavy bodied goods of the 1901 and 1902 growths will have to do service for the next two years to come. As the stocks are relatively small the coming demand is bound to raise prices considerably. Vuelto Abajo has been looked after, but as the stocks have been picked over several times there is less left of desirable goods. Cotas for cigarette factories remain in good demand. Sales have been 6,100 bales, or, say, 4,300 Remedios, 1,700 Vuelto Abajo, and 100 bales of Partido, of which the United States took 3,700, Europe 1,400 and Havana cigar and cigarette manufacturers 1,000 bales.

GOOD BAND WITH THE MINSTRELS

Their Street Concert Was One of the Best Heard Here in Some Time.

Hundreds of people lined East Milwaukee street last evening and listened to one of the best band concerts which has been given in this city by a road show band. Mahara's Minstrels have with them this season a number of negroes who are musicians of a high degree of ability. The open air concert was delightful. Within the Myers Grand it was different. As a collection of antique gags and grinds the performance was noteworthy. The company is this season carrying a line of jokes which are threadbare and tattered from honorable service long since fulfilled. Besides that the men persist in springing cheap sentimental poems and patriotic verses which have nothing to commend them to an audience which is in quest of mirth. The olio is better. Arthur Maxwell is a clever trick cyclist, and A. L. Prince on the slack wire is good. Handy, in his cornet solos, was on a par with the musicianly band which he leads. The mixed quartette furnished some genuine comic melody of the better class.

REV. BIEDERWOLF TALKS TO MANY INTERESTING SERMONS BY THE FORCEFUL SPEAKER.

THE AUDIENCES ARE LARGE

His Hearers Are Charmed with the Able, Pleasing Manner Which He Uses.

During the past twenty-four hours the advertising committee in connection with the Biederwolf-Stout services has been especially active. Bulletin boards have been established in many parts of the city. Today the street cars began to carry placards heralding the meetings. Large cloth banners are in evidence in places. At the meetings the attendance shows that Janesville citizens are beginning to realize that these are no ordinary services.

At the afternoon meeting—three o'clock at the Baptist church—yesterday afternoon the attendance was three times as large as at any previous afternoon meeting. This is the way Rev. Biederwolf wishes it to be. But there is room for greater growth. These are the services at which the evangelist most desires to talk to a crowd of listeners.

Prof. Stout's Singing
Last evening Prof. Stout sang the noted solo, "The Bird With a Broken Wing," in a very beautiful manner. Prof. Stout is gaining hard admirers nightly. His singing hardly seems singing. It is more like preaching in melody. His enunciation is extremely distinct and slow, and every emphasis is placed on the thought of the song. At the same time this singing is very musical, and his voice is clear and brilliant.

Rev. Biederwolf last evening won new listeners, all of whom were impressed by his straightforward eloquence. His words follow:

Text Romans 9:3; Subject—"Concern for souls."

Such a concern as Paul had finds its occasion in a clear view of the condition of lost men. In one of the meetings when an opportunity was given for any one to express what was on their heart, an undemonstrative man who was the father of an unconverted boy, then over 20 years of age rose up and tried to speak, but his voice was choked and he could only say, "My son! My son!" and then his speech left him and he just stood there and wept. In a few moments he turned and walked away and as he walked down the aisle he looked like a moving corpse, and as he came to the rear of the room a young man arose and stepped out into the aisle and as the man lifted his arms, and the son, for it was he, met him, fell into them and as they stood thus a moment and wept the whole audience was moved to weeping with them. "I believe," said the father, at the close of the meeting, "I should have died if my son had not come to Christ tonight."

You say that such a feeling is a strange thing to have. Do you recall the incident of the burning of the Pemberton mills? How the building fell and many were killed and injured. Among those pinned down by the burning timbers were five girls who not long before had been converted to God in a meeting just like this. Great efforts were made to rescue them but in vain. The spot where they were held as in a vise was visible from a certain place, but as many approached they turned away dreading to see they scarcely knew what. At last one of the imprisoned girls lifted up her voice and sang:

"I'm going home; I'm going home; To die no more; to die no more," and then the others joined:

"Let others seek a home below Where flames devour and waves o'erflow."

Be mine a happier lot to own; A heavenly mansion near the throne."

And as the people tried to join with them you do not think it strange their voices were choked with sobs of grief so that they could not sing but only stand and wait until the voices of the singing girls, growing fainter and fainter were hushed altogether. They had gone home. You do not think it strange; those tears of the children who escaped from the wreck when the dying father fastened among the timbers sent a message of love home to mother, saying, "Goodbye, tell mama I'll meet you all in heaven." You do not think it strange when the mother noticing something wrong with baby's eyes and when one day it was worse than usual and the little one acted in a peculiar way the mother took the little one down to the hospital that the great oculist might see what was wrong. The noted specialist took the little one and holding it up before him looked long and intently into the eyes and turning to the woman said, "Mother your little child will never see again," and as she grasp it from his hands she cried, "My God, my baby is blind; my baby blind! my baby blind!"

Listen friends, blind. Listen—life, death, eternity—lost. Friend, if you are here without Christ and without hope in the world the strange thing is that you should have no concern with your soul but the strangest thing is that you know Christ could ever be so unconcerned about the one who does not.

No wonder when the invitation for the unsaved was given a mother came and knelt at the altar and when Mr. Moody said, "Why mother, this invitation was not for you—you are a Christian." She said, "No, Mr. Moody, I did not misunderstand, but I've prayed so long for my son without an answer that I thought that if I'd come and kneel down in his place that God would see me and look on me for him and let his doom be mine. Oh son, if a mother can be so concerned for you, don't you think you ought to be a little concerned for yourself?"

BEET SUGAR IS LARGE INDUSTRY

Many States Have Taken Up the Culture, Idaho Among the Number.

It is a curious thing about the beet sugar belt in the United States. It requires a certain combination of climate and soil. Beginning at the east coast, we find that the central middle states, including New York the upper part of Ohio, Michigan, Wisconsin and as far west as part of South Dakota are beet sugar raising states. The beet sugar belt then takes an abrupt turn to the southwest, crosses Nebraska, Colorado, and down into New Mexico and Arizona. From there it extends northwest through Utah, Idaho and Washington to the Pacific coast. A Idaho Good

JANESVILLE ELECTRIC CO.

Easy to Polish a Stove.

Easily Applied—No Odor—No Dirt.
To polish a stove like peppering a beefsteak may seem odd to those who have never used Sifter Stove Polish, but nevertheless, it is the newest, easiest and most convenient method known. Sifter Stove Polish is put up in a large, round box with a perforated top similar to a pepper box. The polish never dries out and does not require soaking in water before using. There is never any waste. It is good to the last pinch. It is gently sifted on the stove, brushed with a damp cloth and lightly rubbed with a dry cloth. A brilliant, jet black lustre is obtained. There is no odor, no dirty saucers or pans, no rusty boxes to cover. The Sifter box is always clean. Sifter Stove Polish is cheap. It costs 5 cents a box, will polish more stoves than three times its cost in any other polish. All dealers.

...Forty Years Ago...

Janesville Daily Gazette, Thursday March 26, 1863.—Col. Farragut has recaptured the Indianola, without resistance by the rebels. They were just finishing repairs on her when the old admiral pounced down upon them. Three cheers for Com. Farragut and the United States Navy.

By special dispatch from Surgeon Burbank we have the painful news that the rest of the 22nd regiment was captured yesterday morning at Franklin, Tenn. Only eight men, four sick and four wounded who were at Brentwood are left. There must have been between four and five hundred taken prisoners in this last disaster, as there were 159 lost in the battle of Spring Hill, in the 2nd of March.

We learn that the bill to reduce the amount given to each member of the legislature for the purpose of taking papers during the session, from $20 as it now is, to $10 has been indefinitely postponed. The whole law ought to be repealed, instead of amended. Beyond the number of two or three papers for each member, which might amount to five dollars during the session, the whole is a useless expenditure out of the treasury. For newspapers, the legislature now pays annually $2,500 which is given to the members. On the plea that those papers should be sent home to enlighten their constituents, the members usually vote themselves about $2,500 more in stamps for prepaying postage.

An Indianapolis dispatch states that deserters are coming in at the rate of forty to seventy-five daily, and reporting themselves for duty as provided by the President's proclamation promising exemption from punishment for all who take this course previous to April 1. If the deserters are as prompt in returning in other parts of the country, the ranks of the army will be tolerably well filled.

NEWS OF THE COUNTY

EAST CENTER
East Center, March 24.—One of the worst storms of the season is upon us today, and weather prophets tell us it is to last three days. George Yeomans and Frank Brown will be obliged to lay their plow up, during the storm.

Brakeman Fred Brown spent part of last week with friends in Janesville.

Mrs. Walter Little and daughter, Gladys, spent Monday afternoon with Mrs. George Brown.

Mr. Peters a paper hanger from Janesville, has begun doing some work for many in this vicinity.

Mr. Walter Little delivered a fine bunch of hogs to Emory Dunbar, Footville, Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Bleasdale called on friends Sunday.

Miss Mary Linns has opened a millinery store in Orfordville and reports fine success. Miss Mary has the best wishes of her many friends in her new occupation.

SCENE IN "THE CHRISTIAN"

to give a perfect ensemble. The players are taken from the ranks of the best in the profession. The scenic outfit is carried with the company which numbers upwards of fifty people; hence the play is presented in its original perfection.

Superstitions of the Manxmen.
Interest in the people of the Isle of Man, has been re-awakened by the production on the stage of Hall Caine's novel "The Manxman." The novel attracted wide attention when it was published and since Hall Caine's other works have met with such great success it has grown in favor and its picture of life in the author's native land has brought recognition that a highly original people live in the little strip of land that is under the English flag. James O'Neill's appearance in the play built on this book is sufficient to assure renewed study of this quaint people and all their peculiarities.

This study is worth while. The Manxmen are simple, honest folk with whom every striking incident of love, pain or death for centuries has merged into a maze of superstition.

The island is only 11 or 12 miles wide and its greatest length 33 miles. Electric lights, street cars and steam railroads are now operated, but there are many old people on the island who never saw a car or a steamboat.

The old people believe in fairies, ghosts and hobgoblins as firmly as they do in future punishment and reward.

A story is told of an old farmhouse where there were several young ladies. A big, old-fashioned kitchen with a big fireplace, where a bright turf fire casts lights and shadows, was a favorite place of meeting, but all had to vacate every night at a certain hour. For warning, there

It is not meant that ambition should be killed but that one always seeking notoriety should be placed in the background and the chosen seat given to one whose steady, plodding and honest pursuit of the chosen opportunity he seeks is at last rewarded.

Miss Jessie Reylock of Attica, Wis-

Contemporaneous authors and opposition managers have all admitted that one of the greatest successes of the modern stage is "The Christian."

Moreover, the continuous patronage of the public attests to its wonderful merit and vitality. The play, now in its fifth season, is still drawing crowded houses, and the colossal receipts dwarf into insignificance any of the so-called dramatic successes. The moneys taken at the box offices have so far reached over $150,000, twenty per cent, of which are admitted as net earnings. "The Christian" is doubtless a great play, written by a great author, and produced by most liberal management. The presentation of Lieber & Co. who are the owners, spares no expense was a crash, as if a wagonload of gravel was thrown against the wall. If they went to another room that was the end; but if the warning went unheeded, there was another crash. If the third crash was not heeded, it was sure to be followed by serious results. At one time four cows were found dead in the barn next morning. It was believed that the big kitchen was a meeting place for the fairies after a certain hour every night.

There are other uncanny creatures not so pleasant to think of as fairies. The "Madhu Dhu" is a spectre that appears in the form of a black dog, guards several rooms in Peel Castle, and is believed in by almost every resident of the island. Many hard-headed English visitors, who had not a particle of superstition, say that they have seen this uncanny brute. Mermaids are believed to inhabit the bays. One was said to have been caught by Laxey fishermen, and kept in a cottage for three or four days. Every night could be heard terrible wailings and lamentation without, responded to from within by sobs and sighs. The fishermen said nothing could exceed the loveliness of this singular being, a perfect beautiful woman above, a veritable fish with fins and wide-spreading tail beneath.

As it was evident the mermaid would die unless returned to her native element and surroundings, a young fisherman, who the folks say and fallen desperately in love with her, lifted her up in his strong arms, carried her down to the bay and gently deposited her in the water. That moment a terrible scream was heard that re-echoed through the glen; the young man was swallowed up by the sea and the cottage was shattered. The body of the old woman who lived in the cottage was found several days afterward in a cave in the glen. The Queen of the mermaids, it is said occasionally takes a trip ashore, riding on a sea horse.

The "Tarrno-ashoy" is an amphibious monster, which sometimes leaves the sea and mingles with other cattle on the island. It is an uncanny creature.

WILL CELEBRATE THIS EVENING

Fifth Anniversary of the Rebekah Lodge To Be Duly Commemorated.

The fifth anniversary of the organization of Janesville Rebekah Lodge No. 171, will be celebrated this evening by the members at West Side Odd Fellows hall. Supper will be served in the dining hall at 6:30 to the members and their families. At 7:30 there will be a short session in the lodge room, after which there will be an entertainment, the program consisting of musical and literary numbers. The balance of the evening will be devoted to cards and a social good time. All members and their families are requested to be present at the celebration and help make it one of the events in the history of the lodge.

A GREAT TRUTH.

How It Has Spread From Home to Home in Janesville.

In every part of Janesville; in the homes of the wealthy, in the humble abode of the man of toil, 'tis now a well-known fact—a great truth—that Doan's Kidney Pills have brought more comfort to backache sufferers and cured more sick kidneys than any medicine of modern times.

Mr. H. P. Hanson of 103 Pleasant St., engineer employed at the Janesville Machine Co., says: "Doan's Kidney Pills did me all the good that could be expected and I recommend them to any one who may be troubled with lame back or any kidney disorder. After procuring them at the People's Drug Store I took them and felt better, sleep better, my back did not ache like it did, and I did not rise in the morning with a lame and sore back. I suffered from these symptoms for four or five years and I was more than pleased at the results obtained from the use of Doan's Kidney Pills."

For sale by all dealers; price 50 cents. Foster—Millburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the U. S. Remember the name, Doan's and take no other.

Nasal CATARRH
In all its stages there should be cleanliness. Ely's Cream Balm cleanses, soothes and heals the diseased membrane. It cures catarrh and drives away a cold in the head quickly.

Cream Balm is placed into the nostrils, spreads over the membrane and is absorbed. Relief is immediate and a cure follows. It is not drying—does not produce sneezing. Large Size, 50 cents at Drug-gets or by mail, Trial Size, 10 cents by mail.

Hart, of the city of Janesville, Rock County, Wisconsin, administrator de bonis non with the will annexed, of the estate of Daniel Clow, deceased, representing among other things, that said deceased died seized of lots 2 and 4 in Block 7, in Palmer & Sutherland's addition to the city of Janesville, Rock County, Wisconsin. That it is necessary to sell the real estate of said deceased, to pay the expenses of administration, and to distribute the residue of said estate, and that the said lot No. 2 was the homestead of said deceased, and that it is necessary to sell or encumber, the whole of said estate to pay said liabilities.

It is further appearing from said petition, that it is necessary to convey said real estate, and that it is necessary to sell said real estate to carry out the terms of said will.

It is ordered: That said petition be heard at a regular term of the said county court, to be held in and for said county, at the court house, in the city of Janesville, on the third Tuesday, being the 21st day of April, A. D. 1903, at ten o'clock a. m.

It is further Ordered: That this order be published for at least three successive weeks before said day fixed for hearing of said petition, in the Janesville Daily Gazette, a newspaper published in the city of Janesville, in said county, and that a copy thereof be served personally on all persons interested in said estate, and residing in this county, at least twenty days before said day of hearing.

Dated March 18, 1903.
By the Court,
J. W. SALE, County Judge.

Oxygen Hunger

The worst starvation is Oxygen hunger.

It is a disease when your blood is deficient in red corpuscles.

It ends in Consumption and death.

Its signs are weakness, loss of flesh, pale skin, transparent complexion, loss of ambition, and proneness to "catch cold."

The only cure is

Ozomulsion

It is a medicinal emulsion of cod liver oil, containing principles which vitalize and oxygenate the blood and thereby give fresh life and energy to the tissues.

Ozomulsion is the good food, the easy food, the universal food, for all who are sick or in need of strength. To be had at all druggists. Try it.

LESS POLITICS, MORE BUSINESS
 The following non-partisan ticket was presented at the citizens' meeting held at the opera house, Saturday evening, March 14. While it was not endorsed by formal action, it was accepted by most hearty approval. It will be presented to both the republican and democratic primaries and there is every reason why it should be accepted by both parties and become in fact as well as name.

THE PEOPLE'S TICKET
 Mayor—A. O. Wilson.
 Clerk—A. E. Badger.

AN INCORPORATED UNION.
 The incorporation of labor unions has been many times suggested by the representatives of corporations and by employers as one of the remedies for the unsettled relations of labor and capital, and as a sure method for holding unions to their agreements by making them responsible in the courts. Whenever it has been suggested it has been strenuously resisted by the union leaders, and prominent among them, Mr. Gompers, the chief of the American Federation of Labor.

It is curious that notwithstanding this widespread opposition to incorporation among the unions one of the strongest unions in New England, the Metal Polishers, Buffers, Plate Molders, and Brass Workers' union No. 73 of Meriden, Conn., has filed articles of incorporation with the secretary of state at Hartford. The applicants declare the objects of incorporation are reduction of hours of labor, municipal ownership of public national monopolies, abolition of government by injunction in controversies between capital and labor, enhancement of wages, and the welfare of all laboring classes.

There will be no objection on the part of employers in Meriden to the incorporation of the union, for in time of labor trouble they will have something responsible to deal with and something they can sue. It remains to be seen how the Meriden incorporation will work practically. Its program is an ambitious one. So far as reduction of the hours and increase of wages are concerned, all unions are contending for these objects, which are purely industrial. The other objects set down are not to be obtained from employers, but from the city or state or nation, and the union will have to resort to political methods to obtain them. It is possible for the union to secure fewer hours and better wages, but incorporation is not necessary for that purpose. Nevertheless the incorporated union will have a recognized standing among business men. They will negotiate with it and enter into contracts with it exactly as they would with any other corporation.—Chicago Tribune.

This is the most sensible move that organized labor has made.

There are necessarily two parties to a contract, and if any degree of fairness enters into a combine both parties should be responsible. If the employer is liable for violation of contract, there is no reason why the employe should not share in the same responsibility.

THE OPPORTUNITY

The destiny of a city so far as the government is concerned, hangs in the balance once a year. The spring election decides what class of men shall handle its affairs, and what principles shall govern. The most important element that enters into the situation is the caucus where candidates are selected. This fact is seldom appreciated, and as a result, dissatisfaction frequently prevails.

Janesville, like many other cities, has selected her candidates with reference to politics, each party advancing men who aspired to office, and who were supposed to have political strength sufficient to win. These conditions have prevailed for so many years that the people have come to regard the question as settled, and while the wish was frequently expressed that the people might unite for good government, abolishing party lines and ignoring politics, no one thought that this could ever be done. But this is an age of advancement and the people finally awakened to the fact that the city government was not what it ought to be. With the awakening came the desire for reform and with the desire a determination.

Just how to accomplish something practical was made clear by the Municipal League, a citizens organization called into existence by public sentiment, and developed in the interest of business reform.

The work of the league has been the absorbing topic of interest. The taxpayers have come to the conclusion that their rights have been ignored and indignation has culminated in a determination to right some of the wrongs and place the city on a business basis.

The feeling has been so intense, that politics and party lines have been ignored and the citizens have united in a common effort to purify city government. As a result we are on the eve of the primaries, contending, not for party success, but for business reform. The republicans of the city, will meet tonight, not to nominate a republican ticket, but to endorse the citizens movement in the interests of good citizenship.

The democrats will meet tomorrow night for the same purpose. If the people believe as they talk, this will be done by both parties. It is the first opportunity ever presented in the city to establish a precedent that means permanent reform. We are citizens before we are partisans.

Every republican in the city should be at the caucuses tonight. It is a responsibility that no intelligent man can afford to shirk. The government of the city for the next twelve months will be determined. The citizens ticket present is entitled to the loyal support of every man who has a dollar invested in property, and of all men who believe in good government. The obligations of citizenship may not be lightly regarded. They are as sacred as the obligations of the church and have to do with both questions of morals and business.

Don't fail to attend the primaries. The polling places will be open from 7:30 to 8:30 and every republican should record his vote for law and order and better administration.

INTERURBAN RAILROADS

The past few years have witnessed a wonderful change in railway transportation, and all on account of the trolley system which has come into such general use, that it is no longer a novelty. These interurban lines stimulate travel and practically absorb the short haul travel. The line between Janesville and Rockford practically takes care of the travel between the two cities, while it is safe to say that Beloit and Janesville people are back and forth over the line much more frequently than when dependent upon steam roads.

Janesville is fortunate in having this line for a terminal station and the city will be still more fortunate when a line is built to Madison.

The public understands that two companies are seeking a franchise for the Madison line and it is doubtless true that the general public have but little concern as to which one of these companies succeed.

The Rockford and Beloit company argue that it is better to have a continuous line, while the Janesville Traction company claim that it is better for Janesville to have two lines terminating here, than to have a single line pass through the city. As a business proposition the latter argument is strong. The vestibule train, while a credit to the city, is worth less as a feeder than any other train on the road.

The argument is also used that the old company is likely to absorb the Janesville Street Railway system, and improve the service. This would be desirable but it is not likely to occur.

Mr. Blahon was recently in the city and while his road is not profitable as an investment he is disposed to hold it for future development unless he can realize about $75,000 for it. As a business proposition, it is safe to say that he may be obliged to hold it for an indefinite period. The offer to buy the road at double its appraised valuation, which was made by the company, or three times that amount, which was tendered by the other company, would hardly be considered as a proposition. The Gazette has no interest in either of the proposed franchises, nor in the companies behind them. The paper would like to see the Madison line built, because it would be both a benefit and convenience to the city. Janesville ought to be the terminal of half a dozen interurban lines, Johnstown and Delavan should be in touch with the city. With the coming of the rural free delivery system the country will become a suburb, and there should be a great future for the Dower City.

REPUBLICAN CAUCUS TONIGHT

Every republican should do his duty by attending the caucuses tonight.

A vote for the non-partisan delegation means a vote for business reform.

Less politics, more business is a safe proposition for the spring campaign.

If you believe in good government don't be afraid to say so.

FACULTY HELD PLEASANT FEAST

HIGH SCHOOL PUPILS COOKED SUPPER FOR INSTRUCTORS.

ALL DONE BY THE STUDENTS

Entire Feast Was Planned and Made by the Pupils in Domestic Science.

Domestic science in the high school has played an important role in several delightful gatherings in the past. Last evening the dining hall in connection with that department was again the scene of a jolly "spread." The guests were the faculty of the school. It was the first time in about two years that the faculty has been entertained in this way, and the occasion was most thoroughly enjoyed.

Delightfully informal. Formality, it is said, was thrown to the winds. Covers were laid for sixteen, the high school faculty, Miss Dell Millmore, Mrs. Hyde, and Mrs. Gaskins, formerly instructor in music in this city—and there were no students present to check the impulse to lay aside all dignity and restraint. The absence of servants emphasized the tendency in this direction.

The Menu
Cold Ham Beef Loaf
Creamed Potatoes
Coffee Rolls
Olives Devilled Eggs
Salted Peanuts
Fruit Jelly Fudges
Chocolate Cake Spice Cake
Domestic Science Classes
With the exception of the fudges, which were a special gift for the occasion, every article of food was made by members of the different classes in the domestic science department, under the supervision of Miss Thayer, who planned the menu and superintended the entire affair. After the supper, which was served at six o'clock, the guests in turn related each a story, and then turned to, and, after the gentlemen of the party had donned housemaid's aprons, washed the dishes.

HOMES NAMED FOR PRAYER MEETINGS

Services Will Be Held at Eight in the Morning as Has Been Announced.

In pursuance with the plans of the revivalist, Biederwolf, the following homes have been chosen for the cottage prayer meetings to be held on Friday morning at eight o'clock: F. S. Elford, 202 S. Jackson street; Rev. David Jeffers, 58 S. Jackson St.; Rev. Henderson, 5 N. Jackson street; Miss Crosby, 205 N. Jackson street; J. T. Wright, 12 Mineral Point avenue; Dr. Q. O. Sutherland, 206 S. Second street; Mrs. Totten, 27 Wheeler street; Mrs. G. B. Osgood, 5 N. Wisconsin street; Mrs. Benj. Grovo, 154 Western avenue; Mrs. O. L. Richards, 53 Palm street; E. N. Butterfield, 51 Highland avenue; Mrs. Chas. Eller, 204 Mineral Point avenue; Mrs. J. L. Hay, 105 S. Third street; S. B. Lewis, 351 Court street; Dr. E. E. Loomis, 201 Washington street; H. L. Roberts, 53 Forest Park boulevard; S. D. Archer, 3 Dixon street; Mrs. H. A. Dorn, 162 Prospect avenue; Mr. Jas. Hunt, 7 Locust street; M. Calkins, Pleasant street; Nell McVicker, 14 Pearl street; H. L. McNamara, 101 Pearl street; Thor. Hanson, Terrace street; Mrs. Jas. Mout, 401 Court street; Mrs. J. C. Kline, 314 Merrill flats; Mrs. E. W. Lowell, 152 Ravine street; Mrs. O. D. Bates, 357 Court street; Mr. L. Fisher, 56 Milton avenue; Mrs. S. S. Higbee, 3 Vista avenue; Mrs. David Clark, 205 South Main street; Mrs. R. C. Denison, 54 South Jackson street; Mrs. H. F. Nott, 111 Terrace street.

Republican caucuses tonight.

CITY NEWS NOTES

Art League: The history class of the Art League will meet with Mrs. J. F. Pember, 4 Cherry street, tomorrow afternoon at three o'clock.

Filed Nomination: Yesterday afternoon the nomination papers of the candidates for city offices on the social democratic ticket were filed with the city clerk.

Special Notice: Mr. Henry A. Rogers, the citizens' candidate for alderman in the Second ward, declines to be a candidate on account of expecting to be absent from the city. W. A. Farmer has been put on the ticket to fill the vacancy.

Paid Their Tax: The tax sale of property on Wall and North Franklin streets on account of street improvements did not come off yesterday afternoon as advertised. The property owners paid their assessments under protest and stopped the sale.

Funeral Postponed: The funeral of the late Otto Jacke was postponed from this afternoon until Friday afternoon, on account of his son who is a soldier at West Point, not being able to get here today, the City of Janesville, Wis.

Fourth Ward Caucus: The Fourth ward voters will remember that the caucus for that ward is held in the Skelly wagon shop, corner Pleasant and South Academy streets, from 7:30 to 8:30 this evening.

To the Janesville Public: In contradiction to the reports circulated that we, the stockholders of the Southern Wisconsin Interurban railroad, are merely seeking for a franchise from the citizens of Janesville without any intention of building the road proposed, I would say: We are asking for a franchise for the purpose of building a road from here to Madison and have the road planned and are ready to begin operations as soon as the council grants us the franchise. This statement should end all stories of a contradictory nature. MICHAEL HAYES.

Republican caucuses tonight.

NOTICE TO ADVERTISERS.

On and after April 1st, 1903, no contract will be made for business localities. The rate for this class of advertising will be ten cents per line for each and every issue of either Daily or Weekly. The Gazette adopts this policy for two reasons:

First. To improve the news columns of the paper. The first consideration of any newspaper is the reader; and its value to the advertiser depends entirely upon its popularity with the reading public. Business localities frequently flood the composing room the last hour before the paper goes to press, and news is sacrificed to meet the demands of this class of business.

Second. The Daily Gazette is rapidly extending its circulation throughout the county, giving the Janesville merchant an opportunity to talk to the farmer as well as the city customer, six days in the week. This means faster machinery, and increased expense in producing a paper as well as increased value for advertising purposes.

The paper has also adopted what is known as the space rate for display advertising, and prices have been placed within the reach of all advertisers.

The paper has long enjoyed a liberal patronage from home merchants, and it is in position today to furnish better service than at any time in its history.

GRAND JURY IS TO HAVE WORK

MAY INVESTIGATE SOME RECENT CHICKEN MATCHES HELD.

THE PROMOTERS ARE WARNED

Beloit Daily News Is Sure That Many To Be Investigated Live Near Beloit.

According to the Beloit Daily News there will be something doing for the promoters of chicken fights and boxing matches, when the grand jury convenes May 11. Although nothing definite has been ascertained here in regard to these things, the News gives the following as it says "on the best of authority."

The Report
Owners of fighting cocks in Janesville, Beloit and other parts of Rock county will probably be on the anxious seat until after the grand jury, recently called by request of the district attorney, has completed its labors and gone home. While the jury was called primarily to investigate the charges of fraud in Janesville it has been learned on the best authority that other evils in the county will be looked into.

Names Known
From an official in the county it is ascertained that the names of the owners of game cocks in a recent main held inside the county have been secured and that sufficient evidence is at hand to indict them. Whether or not spectators will be brought into the case is not known, but the announcement that the owners of birds will be put on the rack is authoritative.

Questionable Places
One or two questionable resorts, not a hundred miles from Beloit, it is said, are also on the grand jury list and altogether the coming session promises to bring out some interesting and startling disclosures.

STUDENTS WANT A BALL TEAM

The High School Enthusiasts Must Raise Fifty Dollars First, However.

Janesville high school should place a baseball team in the field this spring. This was the consensus of opinion among the judges last evening, after six students, in two teams of three men each, had set forth the principal arguments upon the forensics platform. The occasion was the weekly meeting of the Rusk Lyceum, and one subject chosen for debate was timely in connection with the efforts which are now being made to play the game if possible.

Supporting the affirmative of the question, and winning the unanimous vote of the jury, were Harold Smith, Walter Carle and Thomas Casey. Opposing them were Roy Waters, Will Curtis and Clarence Van Buren. Henry Shavlen and George Caldwell took part in the program, but did not argue upon the main question.

Working for Team
Among the students a Herculean effort is being made to meet the requirements which will make it possible to play baseball this spring. On their part the principal condition is that fifty dollars be pledged for the support of the team within two weeks. The athletic association, will not assume any debt which may be incurred.

Wants the Money
Thomas Casey has been circulating a pledge to purchase a season ticket for the support of the team. The tickets are to cost fifty cents, and will give admittance to at least four home games. About fifty signatures have been received. In addition to this each member of the team will give a dollar, it is said, and with other contributions which it is believed can be relied upon, an aggregate of thirty dollars, in round figures, has already been pledged. The paper was first circulated yesterday noon, so prospects seem bright for raising the required sum.

To Play Tomorrow
Of the last year's team, only one man has left school, and there seems to be little to fear in point of material. The candidates for the team, in case there is a team, expect to go out for informal practice tomorrow evening, and will continue nightly, not discontinuing their efforts during the vacation.

In addition to the financial question, it must be proved that it is possible to secure games with qualified teams before sanction can be given to baseball. Supt. Buel has written to a number of neighboring schools to make inquiries as to their standing in regard to the inter-scholastic requirements. He has received answers from six schools, and one is eligible.

WILL GIVE PINAFORE IN BELOIT SOON AFTER EASTER

The Performance Will be a Benefit for New Hospital.

Thursday, April 16 has been fixed upon as the date when the production of "Pinafore" is to be given at Beloit. The members and friends of St. Mary's congregation who assisted in presenting Gilbert and Sullivan's ever-renewing opera before two delighted Janesville audiences, will go to Beloit on that evening, present the opera for the benefit of the hospital project now on foot in that city.

Rehearsals for the production will begin directly after Lent, although but few will probably be necessary. The parts were thoroughly learned for the first presentation and the drilling was thorough. No changes in the cast are planned for the Beloit production.

NOMINATION PAPERS ARE FILED FOR CITIZENS' TICKET

Steps Taken This Morning to Put Non-Partisan Ticket Within the Law.

City Clerk Badger this morning received the nomination papers for the candidates for the citizens' ticket, as named some days ago. Each paper had the signature of twenty citizens attached to it, as required by law and one hundred were signed to the ones for the candidates for city officers. This move was taken to legalize the citizens' ticket and make it possible for the two conventions, republican and democratic, to endorse a ticket which did not represent the opposing political party.

Man AND HIS Clothes

"Man has been defined as a creature who does not say anything about his clothes and woman as a creature who talks about nothing else." Man may not say much on this point but he does considerable thinking. He has his fads and foibles, fancies and fashions and is deeply interested in matter of adornment and it is good for him. Most men will be interested in learning that the real stylish sack coat suit of today is cut rather close to the back; the back and front have the same dip—the same length will be better understood—is a spuffer fit, getting away from the former military style, in place of being cut away at the bottom to such an extent it is rounded at the corners and the entire garment is somewhat shorter than formerly. The prevailing style is three button coat for the young men and four button for the elder gentlemen. The lapels and collars are not as narrow as formerly and the vest and coat will open somewhat lower. The popular vest is without a collar and the trousers are rather full at the knee and hips, the bottoms being small—the style differs considerably from the old peg-top at the same time following very graceful lines.

Individuality.

It must be remembered that we do not hold rigidly to the prevailing fads or fashions in styles—every person's peculiarities of form and taste are studied and consulted.

The Suit at $35.

carries the same exclusive features of art in style procurable no where else that are found in our higher priced suits. You are always welcome here as a looker.

MARRIAGE LAW CUTS FEES DOWN

JUSTICES DO NOT DO A BIG BUSINESS NOW.

MANY GO TO ILLINOIS TO WED

Those Who Can Not Wait the Five Days' Time Seek Other States.

The five day marriage license law has struck a crippling blow to the Wisconsin Justice of the Peace office as an aid to president Roosevelt's matrimonial policy. Examination of the dockets of this city reveals only a meagre number of couples who have by this agency become man and wife since the law became operative. What has proved disastrous to the Justices of this city has been a godsend to the Illinois magistrates, Rockford officials gaining the greatest profit from the law.

Since the law went into effect, about two years ago, but few couples have passed when some Janesville couple has not slyly escaped from this city and visited a Rockford magistrate. Without the five day wait have come to this city from neighboring cities.

Justice Earle has joined the greater number of couples for better or worse, of the two local justices. His docket shows the following dates in the past year on which ceremonies were performed in his office: August 19, 20, 28, Sept. 2, 1902, and Jan. 8, 1903. Of these five marriages the contracting parties were in two cases, residents of Janesville; the others gave their addresses as Orfordville, LaPrairie and Lanark, Ill.

C. W. Reeder, a benedict himself, has joined fewer couples that his bachelor fellow Justice. During the past year he has pronounced the words which constitute a legal marriage at the request of but two couples. The dates were May 19 and Nov. 19, and the parties came from Chicago in one case and Beloit in the other.

Most interesting of these marriages was the case to which the prospective groom came to this city with his bride-to-be to procure a license. Meeting some congenial spirits, he made his way to a saloon and there he stayed, forgetting both license and waiting sweetheart. And yet the same two made the second trip to this city not many days later, secured the license and were married. Of the marriages which Mr. Earle performed, two were in the presence of the carnival crowds last August. One was in a den of lions.
